when the record was verified following suspicious activities of salesman Balwant Singh of Utlodha village. During the preliminary inquiry, he was found guilty of embezzlement by making bogus entries in the record about selling fertiliser bags to 80 farmers of Utlodha and Jahidpur villages here on credit," said Prem Chand, manager of the PACS at Dadri Toa village here, he said it was presumed that he would have sold the fertilisers to other people to get money. He maintained, during the inquiry, the farmers were contacted to get their statements for verification of documents, but all farmers denied having any link with the case. Their signatures on was then brought to the knowledge of the General Manager, Jhajjar Central Cooperative Bank Limited and Assistant Registrar Cooperative Society, Jhajjar, who assigned a thorough inquiry into the case to the Inspector, Cooperative Societies, Matanhel village, he added.

"In July 2019, the salesman was found guilty of embezzling Rs 17.45 lakh in the inquiry but he filed an appeal against it before the court of Registrar, Cooperative Societies, Haryana, which dismissed the petition on May 12 this year. Thereafter, a process to get the FIR lodged against the salesman was initiated," said Chand, adding that later, the salesman was suspended.

authorities got these filled with cement plaster. The authorities are tight-lipped about the cracks, but the locals are demanding a high-level inquiry into the construction of the building. "The government should initiate a high-level inquiry to fix responsibility over why cracks have developed in the newly constructed building," Rajesh Sharma, a local resident.
