TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

ROHTAK, JANUARY 12

Rohtak's Sector 25 of the Haryana Shehri Vikas Pradhikaran (HSVP), which did not exist on its Online Building Plan Approval System (OBPAS) portal, has now appeared on the portal.

HSVP officials concede that the matter, which had been pending at the state headquarters for several months, has been resolved. "The issue has been resolved by the state headquarters. The allottees may apply for online services now," said HSVP (Rohtak) Estate Officer Shweta Suhag.

Hundreds of plot owners of Sector 25, who were unable to get their building plans approved due to its non-existence on the HSVP web portal, have heaved a sigh of relief. The plot owners, who had been making rounds of HSVP offices for a long time, have expressed gratitude as their longstanding grievance has been redressed.

Cops: Targeted killing averted before R-Day

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

New Delhi: Delhi Police's Special Cell arrested two alleged associates of Canada-based gangster-turned-terrorist Arshdeep Singh Gill alias Arsh Dalla. Sources claimed that a targeted killing of a high profile individual before Republic Day was thwarted with the arrests. The accused were identified as Jagjit Singh alias Yaqub from Uttarakhand (29) and Naushad (56) from Jahangirpuri. Three pistols and 22 live cartridges were seized from the accused. "Accused Naushad was associated with terrorist outfit 'Harkat-ul-Ansar', was sentenced to life in two murder cases and had also undergone 10 years sentence in a case under Explosives Act," Delhi Police said in a statement.

Jagjit was a member of notorious Bambiha gang and was getting instructions from anti-national elements based abroad, police said adding that he was also a parole jumper in a case of murder in Uttarakhand. The suspects could be associated with Khalistani Tiger Force, cops suspect. Their mobile handsets revealed crucial information about their plan, an official said.

One of the two suspects, supposedly linked to Ayodhya, was caught a few days ago. Raids were conducted in Jahangirpuri on Thursday and the second suspect was detained.
