Major relief for DDA in housing project case

Abhinav.Garg@timesofindia.com

New Delhi: Delhi's Real Estate Appellate Tribunal (RE-AT) has set aside a Rs 1-crore penalty imposed on the Delhi Development Authority by Real Estate Regulatory Authority (RERA) for failing to register a housing project.

The relief came after DDA argued that the Rohini project was completed before the RERA for Delhi was established in 2017, making registration unnecessary.

"The documents being sought now were not available when the authority passed the orders. Since these documents are crucial to the case, and in the interest of justice, it is appropriate to send the matter back to the authority to review the complaint again within two months," the REAT bench said in its recent order.

In the process, REAT quashed RERA's order imposing the Rs 1-crore cost on DDA and overturned the direction to file a criminal complaint against the agency via its vice-chairman for violation of provisions of the real estate law.
