

GENERAL RULES FOR EXAMINATIONS

1. The University shall hold examinations for awarding Degrees, Diplomas or Certificates in such branches of knowledge as the University may determine from time to time.
2. The date of the commencement of the examination as well as the last date for submission of online examination forms and fee as fixed by the competent authority shall be notified by the Controller of Examinations to the University Teaching Departments/Institutes maintained and affiliated/associated Colleges admitted to the privileges of this University and the same be uploaded on the University website.
3. Students shall not be eligible for admission to a course of study for an examination unless they have passed the qualifying examination of this University or any other examination recognised by this University as equivalent thereto and possess such further qualifications, if any, as may be prescribed by the Ordinance.
4. Application for admission to an examination shall be submitted online accompanied by the requisite fee by the Head/Principal/Director of the Department/College/Institute so as to reach the University by the date fixed for the purpose after verifying the following:-
 - a) of good Character Certificate;
 - b) Certificate that the candidate is eligible to appear in the examination under the Ordinances prescribed for the examination concerned;
 - c) any other certificate(s) required under the Ordinances.
5. A candidate who has once submitted his/her online examination form for an examination along with the requisite fee, shall not be permitted to withdraw the application form on his/her own accord and claim refund of the examination fee.
6. A candidate's examination form and fee may be accepted after the last date with late fee as prescribed upto the date notified by the University. The examination form may also be accepted upto 30 days before the commencement of the Examination (subject to discretion of the Controller of Examinations) with late fee as prescribed by the University. The period of 30 days is to be counted from the date of commencement of the Examination given in the schedule of examination. Postponement of examination, if any, will have no impact upon it.

In a very exceptional and hard case, the Vice-Chancellor when he/she deems it appropriate may allow as a special case to accept the examination form 7 days prior to commencement of the examination with a late fee of Rs. 5000/-.
- 6.1 With late fee of Rs. 10,000/- per semester/year for accepting the examination forms between seven days to one day before commencement of the examinations. (EC Reso. No. 35 of 31.12.2021)

7. A student is required to attend minimum lectures of theory and practical to become eligible to appear in the examinations as prescribed in the relevant Ordinance. However, the Director/Head/Principal of the Institute/Department/ College may condone shortage of attendance upto 20% of lectures in the course in all the examinations subject to fulfilment of conditions laid down in the relevant Ordinance.
8. The Academic Council shall have power to exclude any candidate from examination permanently or for a specified period for reasons to be recorded, if it is satisfied that such a candidate is not fit to be admitted to the examination.
9. If a candidate for any University Examination owes any money to the University or his college on any account and fails to pay the money or has in his possession any book, apparatus, or other property belonging to the University or the College, or any kit etc., supplied by the N.C.C./N.S.S.etc. and fails to return the same, the Controller of Examinations on receipt of such a report from the Principal of college or, the Head of a University Teaching Department may withhold or authorise the withholding of the admission card of the candidate or if the admission card has already been issued, suspend the order of admission till all such money has been paid or such property has been returned by the candidate.
10. When the candidature of a candidate is to be cancelled before his appearance in the examination on grounds of his/her being ineligible, the Branch Officer (Results) concerned is authorised to pass orders.
11. The Controller of Examinations may withhold the permission granted to any candidate by some accidental mistake or omission who was not eligible to appear at any University examination, even though an admission card had been issued and produced by him/her before the Superintendent of the Examination Centre or he/she may have appeared in one or more papers at the examination, and to cancel the result.
12. Where a candidate for an examination in which the number of chances available are limited, has missed one or more chances on account of illness, only one additional chance may be allowed if the candidate, having submitted his/her examination form and fee, informs the Controller of Examination before the commencement of the University examination, his/her inability to appear in the examination and also furnish a Medical Certificate from a Government Doctor or the Medical Officer of the University.

The Vice-Chancellor may consider the request of candidate for allowing an extra chance for clearing compartment/re-appear in lieu of any chance which he/she might have missed on account of participation in sports on behalf of the University, revision of result after re-evaluation, delay in the declaration of result due to registration, awards, decision of unfair means case etc., due to no fault of the candidate.

The additional chance shall be availed of immediately next to last admissible chance.

A candidate against whom there is a charge of unfair means and who, in the course of the enquiry, misses admissible chances of appearing in an examination, may be given by the Vice-Chancellor, additional chance(s) if he/she is exonerated of the charge.
