Name of the Department: Visual Arts
Name of the Minor Course: Portrait
Offered in semester: 7

Course Code	26VIS507MI01	Course Credits	4 (L:1 T: 1 P: 2)
Max. Marks	100 {External (term-end exam) – 70} (Internal – 30)	Time of end term examination	10 Hours

Note: The practical exam will be conduct by the Department.

Course Objectives:

CO1: - Students would gain knowledge of drawing.
CO2: - Students would understand the elements of drawing.
CO3: - Students would gain the basic principle of Portrait Study.
Medium: Pencil, Monochrome in county crayon.

Course Outcomes:

CO1: - Students would have knowledge of drawing of human head.
CO2: - Students would gain knowledge of construction of skill planes and masses of head.
CO3: - Students would prepare different model of sketches.
CO4: - Students would be able to draw single line drawing portraiture, masses of head.

Unit - I

Construction of skull-planes and masses of head.

Unit – II

Details such as eyes, nose, mouth etc. .

Unit – III

Relative proportions amongst head, neck and shoulders

Unit – IV

Student has to understand the resemblance of the models.

Suggested Readings: NA

Scanned with OKEN Scanner