जहां एक तरफ सरकार बुजुर्गों को कोरोना से बचाव और साफ सफाई बरतते हुए घरों में रहने का संदेश दे रहे ही हैं। वहीं दूसरी तरफ सेक्टर-21सी में बिजली डिपार्टमेंट से रिटायर्ड एक अधिकारी का घर में रहना मुश्किल हो गया है। उनका कहना है कि घर के बाहर सीवर का पानी भरा है। जिसके कारण विभित्र बीमारियों का खतरा अब भी बना हुआ है। पिछले करीब तीन महीने से वे सीवर ओवर फ्लो की शिकायत नगर निगम से कर रहे हैं, लेकिन इसके बावजूद समस्या का समाधान नहीं हो पाया।

स्मार्ट सिटी के पॉश इलाकों में शामिल सेक्टर-21सी स्थित 712 और सेल नामक सोसायटी के बाहर सीवर का पानी जमा है। सीवर के पानी से आने वाली गंदी बदबू से यहां के निवासियों का घरों में रहना

₹16 crore fine on 4 firms for missing liquor stock

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

KARNAL, DECEMBER 1

The Excise and Taxation Department has imposed a fine of Rs 16.69 crore on four liquor wholesalers in the district after 1.70 lakh cases were found missing from their warehouses during an inspection when the Covid-induced lockdown was in force.

The step has been taken on the basis of a report of a committee constituted by the DC.

The committee found a lack of 1.7 lakh cases of liquor missing from the godowns, hinting that the four firms having seven wholesale shops had allegedly sold the liquor during the lockdown.

The Centre had imposed a ban on the sale of liquor between March 26 and May 9.

"We have imposed a fine of Rs 16.69 crore on four firms as their stock did not match with their records. We found 1.70 lakh cases of liquor missing from the stock which was checked online on March 25 and May 9," said RK Nain, DETC (Excise).

At 70%, Palwal records sharpest fall in farm fires

BIJENDRA AHLAWAT
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

PALWAL, DECEMBER 1

Krishan Kumar, a 40-year-old farmer from the district's Janoli village, has shown that stubble burning can be put to an end if there is an institutional support.

Not very long ago, he, like other farmers, used to burn stubble. When the authorities got strict and started registering cases against farmers burning crop residue, he started hiring labourers to get the stubble cut. This, however, cost him much.

This time, Kumar sold off paddy stubble to a manufacturer of organic fertilisers — a move that proved not only environment-friendly, but also economically viable.

"I used to spend Rs 5,000 per acre on hiring labour for cutting the crop residue. Thanks to the manufacturer of organic fertilisers, I saved Rs 3,000 per acre," he said, adding he was mulling selling off the residue as fodder next season.

Kumar is among more than 500 farmers, who did not burn paddy stubble this time. Instead, they sold it off to fertiliser manufacturers or as fodder. Their decision has led to 70 per cent decrease in the farm fire incidents in the district this year compared with last year's figures — the sharpest fall among five districts that have recorded fewer number of incidents.

STUBBLE-BURNING INCIDENTS

DISTRICT	2020	2019
Palwal	56	188
Karnal	572	1,081
Kurukshetra	460	738

According to the bulletin released by the Indian Agricultural Research Institute (IARI), Pusa, New Delhi, 56 incidents of residue burning were recorded by the satellite remote sensing technique in the district between October 1 and November 23, when the paddy harvesting was at its peak. It had recorded 188 incidents last year.

Karnal took the second spot with 47 per cent reduction in the number of incidents. It recorded 572 incidents this year against 1,081 last year.

Kurukshetra with 460 stubble burning incidents as compared with 738 last year took the third position, recording a reduction of 38 per cent.

Kaithal and Yamunanagar occupy the fourth and fifth positions, respectively.

However, according to the IARI report, Sonepat, Rohtak, Panipat, Sirsa, Jind, Hisar, Fatehabad and Ambala reported a rise in incidents.

Sonepat and Rohtak recorded an increase of 244 and 210 per cent, respectively, between October 1 and November 23. Sonepat recorded 110 incidents this time compared with only 32 last year. Fatehabad district recorded 1,194 farm fire incidents, the highest in the state. It had recorded 1,191 incidents last year.

Palwal DC Naresh Narwal attributed the change in attitude of farmers to the strict implementation of the crop residue management scheme. "Incentives worth Rs 5.9 crore were given to farmers under the crop residue management scheme," he said.

Gender test racket busted, 4 arrested

KARNAL, DECEMBER 1

After a chase of around 70 km, a team of the Health Department arrested four members, including two women, of a sex determination racket from Panipat late on Monday.

They used to get the sex determination test done from Gangoh in UP with the help of a man who uses a portable ultrasound machine. However, the man from Gangoh managed to escape with the machine.

The accused have been identified as Rajwanti of Samalkha in Panipat, Suman of Gharaunda, Manoj of Rana Majra village and Sumit of Samalkha. A case has been registered against them under various Sections of the PCP-NDT Act in Panipat, he added.

Dr Yogesh Sharma, Civil Surgeon, said that Rs 22,000 which was given to the decoy customer has been recovered from them.

"There was a tip-off that a sex determination gang is active here. A team led by Dr Naresh Kardwal, who is also a nodal officer of PCPNDT programme, was constituted. The team members arranged a woman as decoy customer and approached the middleman in Panipat. Accompanied by other gang members, he took the decoy to Gangoh where another person got the sex determined," said the Civil Surgeon. — TNS

Key accused's kin fail to join probe

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

FARIDABAD, DECEMBER 1

The parents and uncle of Tausif, the key accused in the murder of 21-year-old Nikita Tomar who was shot outside her college in Ballabgarh on October 26, have failed to join the investigation in connection with the 2018 kidnapping case.

Tausif had allegedly kidnapped Nikita two years. A case was registered, but the matter was settled following a compromise between the families of the boy and the girl.

The SIT reopened the kidnapping case after Tausif allegedly murdered Nikita.

It had, last week, issued a notice to Tausif's father Zakir, uncle Javed and mother to join the investigation, but they had failed to respond, police officials said. When a police team went to their house in Gurugram, no one was found there. They were absconding, the police have said.

"The SIT has already issued two notices to Tausif's family on the basis of the statement given by Nikita under Section 164 of the CrPC in 2018. She had said Tausif's parents and uncle had been mounting pressure on her to marry him in spite of her opposition. Members of Tausif's family have not responded to the notices. Besides, they are on the run. Their arrest cannot be ruled out," said ACP Anil Kumar, who is heading the SIT.

Detainees freed, state tells HC

CHANDIGARH, DECEMBER 1

Appearing before the Bench of Justice Jasgurpreet Singh Puri, counsel for the petitioner submitted that there was no justification for indiscriminate arrests. The Bench adjourned the case for December 18. — TNS
