WHEN VIRUS K AT DOORSTEP

2019 Novel Coronavirus, or 2019-nCoV, a new respiratory virus first identified in Wuhan, Hubei Province, China.

Symptoms and complications

Current symptoms include mild to severe respiratory illness with fever, cough, and difficulty in breathing

New Delhi: Delhi high court on Monday sought the response of the Centre and Jamia Millia Islamia on a plea challenging the appointment of the current vice-chancellor Najma Akhtar.

Justice AB Chawla issued a notice to Union ministry of human resource development, Central Vigilance Commission, University Grants Commission, Jamia and Akhtar seeking their stand on the petition by a lawyer, who is also an alumnus.

The plea by M. Ehtesham-ul-Haque alleged that Akhtar's appointment was illegal.

tion. "It is submitted that the entire process culminating into the impugned appointment of Najma Akhtar is a colourable exercise of power and in flagrant violation and total non-compliance of the statutory provisions of the Jamia Millia Islamia Act, 1988," the plea further alleged, urging HC to declare her appointment as VC "illegal, arbitrary, void ab initio and non est in law". In his plea, Haque alleged that laws governing establishment and running of Jamia were "sacrosanct and couldn't be interfered with by any authority. The Act and statutes are binding on the university and its functionaries," the plea delineated, assailing a cabinet minister's move to recommend a panel of names for the appointment in 2018.

Apex court to hear Mukesh's plea

New Delhi: The Supreme Court will hear on Tuesday a petition filed by Nirbhaya gang-rape case condemned prisoner Mukesh challenging the President's decision to reject his mercy plea and fixing February 1 as the date for his hanging. When the petition was mentioned for urgent hearing, a bench headed by CJI SA Bobde said any petition filed by a death row prisoner would be given top priority for hearing. The petition is scheduled for hearing at 12.30pm on Tuesday. TNN

Plea questioning witness' credibility dismissed

Observing that the act was "desperate" and "mala fide," a Delhi court on Monday dismissed a plea filed by the father of one of the four convicts in the case questioning the credibility of the sole witness.

Additional sessions judge Ajay Kumar Jain said, "The acts of the complainant, who is the father of convict Pawan Kumar Gupta, are not
