

STRATEGIC GOALS

The strategic goals of the Department are focused on different aspects for the benefit of students, educators, alumni, stakeholders & the society. The goals cumulatively are as follows:

- to follow up disciplinary advancement;
- bridging up theory and practice;
- orientation to have an understanding of 'information' as an economic resource;
- to create flocks of able information professionals to work in the region;
- to have a strong network of community outreach programme;
- to widen the alumni network to gain the first-hand experience for the freshers;
- to design a pragmatic and all comprehensive curricula for wide range of job market and to search new avenues beyond the traditional scope for the passing out students