Resident docs stay off OPD services

New Delhi: Patients services at RML, Safdarjung and Lady Hardinge hospitals were affected as resident doctors of the three Centre-run hospitals on Saturday suspended OPD services in protest against NIPET/PG 2021 counselling. The move came in the wake of a nationwide call by the Association of Resident Doctors' Association (FORIDA) for suspension of out-patient department (OPD) services at hospitals from November 27. Though patients services were affected on weekends to the detriment of patients in OPDs, generally now. "Due to the pandemic, admission to various courses in NIPET/PG 2021 has been delayed indefinitely. The residents have been carrying both Covid and non-Covid services.
