Robbers attack
businessman,
flee with car

GURUGRAM, FEBRUARY 5
An armed vehicle robbery was reported from Rajendra park area and the entire episode was caught by a CCTV camera installed at a home nearby. An FIR has been registered at Rajendra park police station. According to the complaint filed by businessman Kuldeep Kumar, a resident of Dhankot village, he was returning from Basai village in his car at 10.30 pm on Wednesday. On the main road, another car overtook his car and stopped in front of it. "When I stopped my car, two armed men came out and indicated to me to open the window. When I did not open it, one of them broke it and another hit my head with the butt of a pistol. The duo then pushed me out of my car and fled away. Their third accomplice went away in his car after firing into the air," Kuldeep told the police. — OC
