No new tax was levied in the budget for 2021-22 presented by Rajasthan Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot in the State Assembly on Wednesday, while the relief measures to the tune of ₹910 crore were announced for farmers, industrialists, real estate players, traders, tour operators and common people through various exemptions.

Presenting the Congress government's first paperless budget, Mr. Gehlot, who also holds the Finance portfolio, announced the launch of a universal health care scheme worth ₹3,500 crore stipulating medical insurance of ₹5 lakh to every family in the State.

A separate agriculture budget would also be presented from the next year, said Mr. Gehlot.

The budget projected a revenue deficit of ₹23,750.04 crore and fiscal deficit of
