Farmers block Haryana expressway on 100th day

Leaders of protesting farmers firm on demand of repealing new farm laws

A farmer sits on the tyre of a tractor on the 100th day of the ongoing agitation, in New Delhi, Saturday.

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA NEW DELHI, MARCH 6
Farmers protesting the Centre's three farm laws on Saturday blocked the six-lane Karnali-Manasa Palwal Expressway at some places in Haryana to mark the completion of 100 days of the agitation at the Delhi border.

The road blockade began at 11 am and continued till 3 pm. Farmers held black flags and waving black umbrellas and some women protesters with black dupattas shouted slogans against the BJP-led government for not accepting their demands. Protesters in Sonapat and Hissar districts and some other places brought their tractor-trolleys and other vehicles and parked them in the middle of the KMP Expressway in some stretches.

The Haryana Police had made arrangements for traffic diversions and deployed adequate personnel. The call for blocking the expressway was given by the umbrella body of protesting farmer unions which is spearheading the agitation against the legislations.

Protesting farmers' union led by the Narendra Modi government for not withdrawing the farm laws, which they call as "black laws". Our agitation against the three farm laws will continue unless the Centre withdraws these laws. We will not give up," said a protester in Sonapat. Farmers held placards at the KMP Expressway near Mandoli village in Hissar district. Some people from nearby villages joined them.

"We are holding our protest in a peaceful manner, said a farmer, adding that they were also observing black day on Saturday. Farmer leaders said the protesting unions stand firm on their demand of a complete repeal of the three-act laws and asserted that they are ready for talks with the government, but that should be held without any condition.

Darshan Pal, a senior member of the Samyukta Kisan Morcha which is spearheading the going protest, said farmers would stand firm on the demand of repeal of three-act laws. "Since the beginning of our agitation, our demand remains the same which is the repeal of three-act agricultural laws. We are ready to resume talks with the government, but it should be held without any condition," Pal told PTI.

100 days of BJP's arrogance; black chapter in our democracy: Cong

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA NEW DELHI, MARCH 6
As the farmers' protest against the Centre's new farm laws completed 100 days, the Congress on Saturday said the period was a "black chapter" in India's democracy for the treatment meted out to the protesters and also marked 100 days of the ruling BJP's "arrogance". Congress leader Rahul Gandhi hit out at the Centre over the farmers' protest and said nails were laid at Delhi's borders for those whose sons risk their lives at the country's borders.

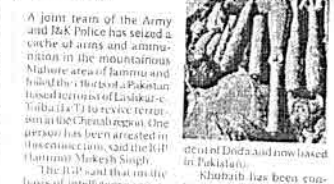

"His attack came after the farmers' agitation completed 100 days with the villages joined them. "We are holding our protest in a peaceful manner, said a farmer, adding that they were also observing black day on Saturday. Farmer leaders said the protesting unions stand firm on their demand of a complete repeal of the three-act laws and asserted that they are ready for talks with the government, but that should be held without any condition.
