AAP protests against farm laws in Punjab

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
CHANDIGARH

To express solidarity with farmers amid their ongoing agitation against the three farm laws enacted a year ago on September 17, the Aam Admi Party hit the streets in Punjab on Friday.

The party held candle marches in different parts of the State to extend homage to all those farmers who lost their lives during the ongoing agitation.

AAP MLA and its farmer wing president, Kulvir Singh Sandhwa said party leaders and workers held candle marches with black bands on their arms in Mansa, Bathinda, Sangrur, Barnala, Pathankot, Ferozepur, Faridkot, Jalandhar, Amritsar and Hoshiarpur districts.

"We demand immediate repealing of all the three farm laws," he said.

Termining the protest held by the Akali Dal in Delhi as a "drama", Mr. Sandhwa said it was "the Badal family" that has contributed to enacting the farm laws.

Mr. Sandhwa said along with the BJP and SAD, the ruling Congress government in Punjab was equally responsible for the destruction of agriculture.

Amarinder demands scrapping of farm laws

'High time the Central government realised its blunder'

CHANDIGARH

Punjab Chief Minister Captain (Retd.) Amarinder Singh on Friday demanded immediate scrapping of the three farm laws enacted by the Centre, while calling for detailed discussions with farmers to find a way forward.

Pointing out that many farmers had died over the course of the ongoing protests against the laws, the Chief Minister said it was "high time the Central government realised its blunder and withdrew the legislations in the interests of the farmers and the nation".

The Chief Minister was speaking as he inaugurated the third State-level virtual "Kisan Mela" (farmer fair) organised by the Punjab Agricultural University, Ludhiana.

"Till date, the Indian Constitution has been amended as many as 127 times, so why can it not be amended once again to scrap the farm laws and resolve the imbroglio resulting from them?" asked the Chief Minister. "What is the problem in doing it a 128th time?" he demanded to know from the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP)-led government at the Centre, which he said was "out to ruin farmers".

"What is happening with farmers today is extremely sad, given the immense contribution made by them [farmers] to India's development and progress," Capt. Amarinder said, calling for immediate revocation of the laws, which he said were detrimental to the interests not only of the agricultural community but the entire country.

Recalling that he had been asked by the Centre to stop Punjab's farmers from going to Delhi in November 2020, the Chief Minister said he had refused point blank

Till date, the Constitution has been amended as many as 127 times, so why can it not be amended once again to scrap the three farm laws?

to do so as to protest is the democratic right of farmers. "Why should they not protest? How can I stop them?" he asked, stating that he continued to stand with farmers in their fight against the legislations.

Punjab farmers hailed
Noting the contribution of Punjab and its farmers to the country's growth, the Chief Minister said that the State, with only 1.53% of India's total geographical area, produces about 18% of the country's wheat, 11% of paddy, 4.4% of cotton and 10% of milk. For the past many decades, Punjab had been contributing about 35-40% of wheat and 25-30% of rice to the Central pool, he said, expressing pride in the achievements of the State's farmers.

Big storm over short pants in Assam

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
GUWAHATI

A 19-year-old girl appearing for an examination in Assam was made to wrap a curtain around her legs by an invigilator who chafed at her wearing shorts, provoking outrage and allegations of gender bias, and prompting university authorities to order an inquiry.

The girl's family has, however, decided against taking the matter further in the interest of her mental well-being and academic future.

The incident occurred on Wednesday when the girl had gone from her hometown Biswanath Chariali to Tezpur to appear for the entrance examination of the Assam Agricultural University (AAU). She had unhindered access to the venue but an invigilator inside the examination hall objected to her wearing short pants.

The AAU has constituted a three-member committee to inquire into the "unfortunate incident". Its registrar Tapan Kumar Gohain said the panel headed by dean of the agriculture faculty will conduct the probe and submit its report in 10 days.
