Ludhiana: Toxic gas from a suspected cocktail of sewage and illegally dumped industrial effluents killed 11 people here on Sunday morning.

"The police have scanned footage from CCTVs near the site where the deaths occurred, but haven't found anything suspicious yet. We are extending the search to nearby locations with cameras to identify the culprits," Ludhiana police commissioner Mandeep Singh Sidhu said.

One of those hospitalised told the police that he was familiar with the stench of gas emanating from sewage in that locality, especially during the monsoon months. "Several dyeing units and other factories are located in Giaspura. Over the past few years, discharges of chemical waste from factories has emerged as an illegal business. This happens mostly on weekends," an official said.

Local councillor Jaspal Singh Giaspura said he was aware of effluents from factories being dumped into sewers by a gang and claimed to have taken up the issue with the municipal corporation, former CM Capt Amarinder Singh and the pollution control board on several occasions.

A heavy shower had lashed Ludhiana Saturday, strengthening the hypothesis that rainwater caused sewage to mix with effluents dumped at night and triggered the release of poisonous gas that the victims unwittingly inhaled. It wasn't until 2pm that equipment arrived to detect the level of toxins in the sewage accumulating under the manholes. "The state pollution control board does not have any equipment to test the toxicity of the sewage into which effluents were released. It was only when an NDRF team from Bathinda reached Ludhiana with the equipment that we did a test," an official said.

The police have sealed the area till 8am Monday. The deceased include Dr Kavilash Yadav, owner of Aarti Clinic in the neighbourhood, his wife Varsha and their three children - Kalpana (16), Abhay (13) and Arya (10). Kavilash, a native of Bihar, had been living in Punjab for over three decades.

Sourav Goyal, owner of the Goyal Kirana Store adjoining Aarti Clinic, his wife Preety and mother Kamlesh were among the other victims. The couple's eight-month-old infant survived the tragedy. Sourav's brother Gaurav was hospitalised. The Goyal family has been living in Ludhiana for over 20 years. Navneet Kumar, an accountant in a local factory and a resident of the area, died with his wife Neetu Devi. His brother Nitin Kumar is in hospital. The family's roots are in Bihar.

A 25-year-old male victim hadn't been identified until evening. Deputy commissioner Surabhi Malik said the Punjab government would pay Rs 2 lakh as ex gratia to the kin of the deceased and Rs 50,000 each to those under treatment. In Bihar, CM Nitish Kumar announced ex gratia of Rs 2 lakh from the CM's Relief Fund to the next of kin of each of the deceased from the state.
