ASER FIELD SURVEY 2024

This year also, the ASER field survey will be conducted in collaboration with MDU Rohtak in the selected districts of Haryana. The Department of Economics has got the approval of competent authority for this collaboration.

The field survey being conducted by the Pratham Education Foundation, is a great opportunity for students to enhance their skills of filed work. Apart from the live exposure of filed work, a three days training will also be conducted at MDU Campus by Pratham Education Foundation for the benefit of participants.

Therefore, the students of various teaching departments of the university are encouraged to participate in the filed survey and training programme. The students will get a Certificate of Participation and Training and a token remuneration just adequate to cover their filed expenses.

Training Programme at Department of Economics: 23-25 Oct 2024

Filed Survey Days: Saturday and Sunday

Interested students (boys as well girls) may fill this google form. It may be noted that if number of applicants is more than the required numbers of participants which is around 60, priority will be give to final year students.
