

Genetic Counselling

Genetic counseling is a communication process that deals with the occurrence or risk of a genetic disorder in a family.

Career Pathways After the Diploma

MAHARSHI DAYANAND
UNIVERSITY ROHTAK,
HARYANA, INDIA

Department of Genetics

Information : PG Diploma in Genetic Counseling

Duration: 1 year, full-time

Eligibility: MSc in Life Sciences, B. Pharmacy, M.Pharmacy, MBBS, BDS, BSc. Nursing, Msc. Nursing

Fee Structure:

₹55000 per semester

Course coordinator :

- Prof. Minakshi Vashist

Teaching Faculty :

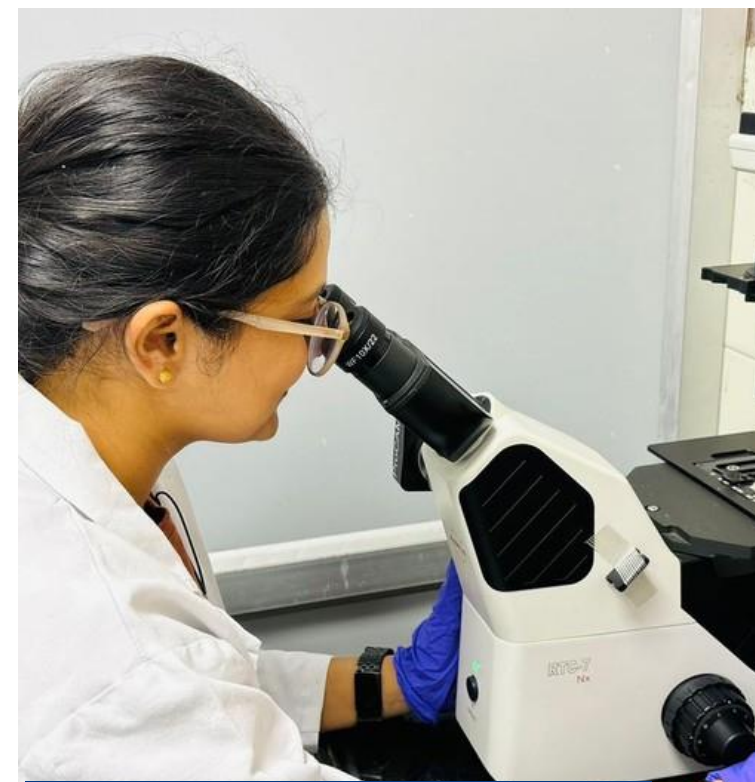

- Prof. Minakshi Vashist,
- Dr S.K. Tiwari, Dr Ritu Yadav
- Dr Neelam Sehrawat
- Dr Mukesh Tanwar

Senior Genetic Counselor :

- Ms. Anuradha Sharma

Clinical Exposure & Internship

1. Pediatrics (Genetic Clinic)
2. Obstetrics & Gynecology
3. Oncology
4. Neurology & Psychiatry
5. Dermatology

Ideal for students who want to work directly in healthcare settings and use their genetics knowledge for patient benefit.

“Genetic counseling allows you to touch lives using science, empathy, and education. If you're looking for a meaningful career beyond the lab, this is your path.”

Admission Link: <https://mduadmission.samarth.edu.in/index.php/registration/user/register>