Sub: Admission of Non-NEP students with a study gap for completion of Degree Programme

Sir/Madam,

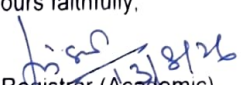

In continuation of this office letter No. AC-IV/F88/2025/16952-17201 dated 23.07.2025 on the subject cited above and in terms of orders passed by the competent authority, this is to inform you that such students (who were admitted prior to the introduction of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 Scheme, but subsequently discontinued their studies due to one reason or another and now wish to resume their studies and complete their respective Degree Programme) may be allowed to complete their UG/PG Degree Programme under the Ordinance/Scheme/Regulations applicable at the time of their original admission, subject to the condition that they have not exceeded the maximum permissible duration prescribed for completion of the concerned programme under the relevant Ordinance/ Scheme/ Regulations.

It will be the responsibility of the Principal/Director to ensure such students be admitted in the same College where they were admitted earlier and also to make all necessary arrangements for the conduct of classes.

This is for your information and necessary action.

Encl: As above

Yours faithfully,

Assistant Registrar (Academic)
