At 70%, thermal power Q1 mainstay

Even as the share of renewable energy in the power mix has steadily increased, thermal power continues to remain the mainstay, with 70% of the electricity consumed in the country during the April-June quarter coming from coal-based plants, minister of state for power Shripad Yesso Naik informed Rajya Sabha.

HC orders cricketer's arrest in rape case

Calcutta HC has directed Bengal Police to arrest cricketer Abhishek Porel, who has been accused of rape and blackmail by a medical student whom he allegedly promised to marry. In its July 14 order, HC said cops should also seize Porel's devices "so that obnoxious data stored in it cannot be disseminated".

Day 1 of monsoon session washed out amid NEET, donation chori protests

Times News Network

New Delhi: The first day of Parliament's monsoon session was a washout as opposition parties protested over a host of issues, including theft of donations at Ayodhya Ram temple and NEET paper leak, leading to frequent adjournments in Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha before proceedings were called off for the day.

Amid the brief moments for which LS sat between several adjournments, law minister Arjun Ram Meghwal introduced a bill to replace an ordinance, which has increased the number of Supreme Court judges from 34 to 38, including the Chief Justice of India.

In RS, leader of the opposition Mallikarjun Kharge raised the issue of NEET paper leak, which he called a scam, affecting the future of lakhs of students. "Today thousands of students have gathered at Jantar Mantar. There has been a lathi charge, and govt is trying to stifle dissent," drawing protests from treasury benches and prompting Chairman C P Radhakrishnan to adjourn the House for half an hour.

The protests, however, could not obscure the changed arithmetic. With rebel TMC MPs in LS being allotted different seats after their entry in the BJP-led NDA, what stood out was the front-row seat given to their head Sudip Bandyopadhyay. He occupied the seat of TMC parliamentary party leader Abhishek Banerjee, who now commands a group of eight MPs from earlier 28 and no longer has a front seat.

It could have been the distinguishing feature of the opening day but for the protests, which continued in the two Houses. Despite appeals from LS Speaker Om Birla and RS Chairman Radhakrishnan for order, protests continued in the two Houses.

Birla chided some opposition members for raising slogans when obituary references were read out on the demise of former MPs, saying it was not a good precedent. He later asked protesting opposition members to maintain order and called for allowing other members to participate in parliamentary proceedings, but in vain. The House reassembled six times before being adjourned for the day.

RS was adjourned five times during the day. Earlier, soon after the recently elected MPs took oath, Radhakrishan invoked the "collective responsibility" of members to utilise time to debate and decide on issues of national importance. While urging members to remain focused on the timely disposal of business, he said every disruption delays discussion on matters affecting the nation and the people they represent.

'No expenditure on urban digital mission'

Govt has not utilised a single penny under the National Urban Digital Mission (NUDM) announced in 2021-22 Budget since the mission has not been launched yet. This is despite govt making budgetary allocations for it since 2024-25. In a written response to a question in RS, housing and urban affairs ministry said govt had allocated Rs 1,150 crore in the Budget estimate (BE) of 2024-25 and it was reduced to Rs 18.7 crore, but there was no expenditure. Similarly, Rs 1,250 crore was allocated in 2025-26, but not a rupee was spent during the last financial year. TNN

Delhi violence not spontaneous, says BJP, blames Left

Times News Network

Piyal Bhattacharjee

A CJP supporter during the protest march near Parliament House. Delhi Police is on high alert during the monsoon session

New Delhi: BJP Monday blamed Left-affiliated student organisations, such as All India Students' Association (AISA) and Students' Federation of India (SFI), besides organised groups for protests and violence during Cockroach Janata Party's march to Parliament.

Similar allegations of organised instigation and crowd mobilisation were made in connection with the Delhi riots, and several individuals continue to face legal proceedings in those cases, BJP said. The violence did not appear spontaneous and there were organised groups that initiated it, after which sections of the crowd followed, it alleged.

In a hard-hitting statement, BJP functionary Amit Malviya said that the "stone-pelting and orchestrated violence" carried out in the name of students raise serious questions about the intent of the protestors and those backing them.

"Even more telling was the conspicuous absence of many of the prominent faces associated with the protest from the march itself, leaving those who had been mobilised at the behest of their political patrons to face the consequences," he asked. The investigation will establish criminal responsibility, Malviya said.

"The real conspirators are often those who plan, encourage and coordinate such violence while carefully keeping themselves out of harm's way. They move on to the next agitation, leaving those they mobilised to bear the legal consequences."

CJP had been holding protest at Jantar Mantar since last month and has drawn support from opposition parties over its demand for the resignation of Union education minister Dharmendra Pradhan for paper leaks.

With CJP seeking to mobilise youngsters over alleged irregularities in exams, Malviya rejected some of the allegations floating around. "Facts matter. Narratives built on fabricated documents do not," he said.

Rahul claims Modi 'most anti-youth PM India has seen'

Subodh.Ghildiyal
@timesofindia.com

New Delhi: Congress's Rahul Gandhi slammed PM Narendra Modi as the "most anti-youth PM India has ever had" as opposition jointly condemned BJP for crackdown on the "paper leak" protest march to Parliament Monday.

Rahul said the young protesters are not criminals and Modi should accept their legitimate demands. "It is disgusting what govt and police are doing. Tear-gassing and lathi-charging students is not India's way... all they believe in is 'asatya' and 'hinsa', which are anti-Indian principles," he said in a video statement, adding, "Modi disrespects all the young people of this country." He said there is general outrage against RSS having captured the education system.

Opposition's Mallikarjun Kharge, K C Venugopal, Priyanka Gandhi, Shashi Tharoor (Congress), Akhilesh Yadav (SP), Mamata Banerjee (TMC), Arvind Kejriwal (AAP), Dipankar Bhattacharya (CPI-ML), N K Premachandran (RSP), D Raja (CPI), lashed out at Modi govt for police action. Congress MP Renuka Chowdhury, CPM general secretary M A Baby, SP MPs Dimple Yadav, Dharmendra Yadav, Iqra Hasan, Zia Ur Rahman Barq, Pushpendra Saroj, Chhote Lal, Rajiv Rai among others, joined the protest near Parliament and Jantar Mantar.

With state action against students coupled with viral visuals dominating the headlines, Shiv Sena's Sanjay Raut said "paper leak" and "donation scam" will dominate Parliament in the coming days.

Tharoor said govt should allow some discussions demanded by opposition, and the latter will allow bills to be taken up. "There's got to be give and take. That's how Parliament is supposed to function."

Akhilesh said the large youth turnout proves the failure of BJP regime in conducting NEET and other exams. Priyanka, rebuking govt for police action, said, "It's ridiculous... They are the future of the country. This Parliament belongs to them. It's no one's personal fiefdom."

Dimple, who met the protesters, said, "This will be remembered as a black day. The youngsters came unarmed but faced lathis and were given electric shocks (taser). We saw bleeding heads."

DMK MP Kanimozhi dubbed the protest the most democratic form of expressing people's opinion. "There have been valid questions. Unfortunately, govt doesn't want to answer them and resorts to violence... This is unacceptable."

Cong neta warns police officers

After crackdown on young protestors, Rahul warned police that they will be held accountable. "Peaceful protest is a sacred and fundamental right. Every police officer and govt official blindly following orders to attack India's innocent students should keep in mind, the Constitution is your master," he said. TNN

ने निर्देश दिया कि जो याचिकाकर्ता-न्यायिक अधिकारी 60 साल की उम्र पूरी होने पर रिटायर होने वाले हैं, उन्हें काम जारी रखने दिया जाए।
